Last Sunday was my mother's birthday, I made a dessert for her to celebrate her birthday. It was a banana split called Championship.

I put three scoops of mango flavored ice-cream between two peeled bananas, because my mother loves mango ice-cream the most. I decorated it by adding some peaches, jellybeans, chocolate chips and sparkles. It looked awesome and colourful.

After dinner, mum looked at the jellybean mountain and thought it was too huge for her, she decided to share it with dad and me. After we finished the jellybeans, mum found that it was not just a jellybeans mountain but a banana split. Mum thanked for my dessert but she thought it was too sweet for her. I thought it was brilliant with the delicious peaches. What a lovely dessert!

The Neko's Pudding Present

My delicious dessert is called Neko's Pudding Present. I make it for my parents because they like to eat sweet food and they are so adorable!

I decorate the pudding with whipped cream for its ears, eyes and nose. The cat whiskers are made from milk chocolate, which is sweet, tender and delicate.

I like this pudding because I have a sweet tooth and I am obsessed with the soft texture. People who eat this dessert would love the creamy texture and enjoy the sweetness of the pudding. They would feel overwhelmed with happiness.

A Yummy Dessert

My dessert is called Jelly Pie. I make it for people who have a sweet tooth and like different kinds of fruit.

When I make the mouth-watering dessert, I first get some strawberry, mango and peach flavored jelly. Later, I use some milk flavoured pudding to make a thin coat for the jelly. After that, I make a warm, crunchy pie crust and put the jelly and pudding in the pie crust. Finally, I add some marshmallow and a little bit of whipped cream on top of the soft marshmallow.

My wonderful dessert has a nice smell and people never think of not eating it. Once they take the first bite, they would savor the crunchy pie crust and the sweet marshmallow. For the best part, they would taste the chewy jelly! I'm sure everyone would love it.

I made a cake for my best friend, Isabel. Her birthday is coming. The name of my dessert is Volcano cake.

The cake is easy to make. First, bake the chocolate cake. Then, pour the M&M's on the plate. Finally, pour the raspberry jam on the cake and put the cold white chocolate on top of it. Oh! I forgot to write 'Happy Birthday Isabel'!... Never mind... What's this smell? It smells like raspberry. Aha! It's the cake! Let me try it. It's soft with a dark chocolate flavor.

My dad and mum really love chocolate. The moment they dug into the cake, they were on cloud nine. I like the dessert too, especially the M&M's!

A Yummy Dessert

My dessert is called 'Mango Pudding' which is a kind of pudding with some mango slices on top of it. I make it for my mum because she loves mangoes and pudding. Also, her birthday is coming soon, so I would like to give her a surprise.

I go to the supermarket to buy the fresh eggs and mangoes to make the pudding. It is sweet when I put the mango pieces on top of it. It is soft and creamy.

My mum and I may like my dessert very much and I know she will be over the moon when she eats it.

A Yummy Dessert

If I created a dessert, it would be called a Sanrio Cake, because it's Sanrio themed. I'd make it for my birthday, as I love Sanrio characters, because they are adorable.

I'd decorate the dessert with the special things of characters, such as Kuromi's cars, Pompompoudding's hat and ears, and Hello Kitty's bow. For Kuromi's ears, they would be chocolate. For Pompompoudding's ears, they would taste like caramel. For Hello Kitty, her ears and bow would taste like apples.

In my opinion, I love this cake. I think if someone likes sweet things, then they might like it.

A yummy dessert

The name of my dessert is Brownie Ice-cream. I make it for my sister because her birthday is coming.

First, I need to bake the brownie, then I take a scoop of vanilla ice-cream. After the brownie is cooked, I put the ice-cream on the brownie. At last I need to squeeze some chocolate syrup on top. The brownie ice-cream tastes scrumptious, smells good and looks like a beautiful building.

I like the dessert because I can taste the ice-cream while eating the brownie. People will feel like they are eating ice-cream in a winter wonderland

My Christmas Holiday Plan

This year, the Christmas holiday is from 23rd December to 1st January. My family and I have got a plan for it.

I have planned to spend the first two days to decorate our home for Christmas. First, I am going to buy some Christmas decorations with my family. Then, we are going to decorate our home together on the second day.

Besides preparing for Christmas, I am going to spend five days to study at home. I need to work very hard because I am going to have examinations after the Christmas holiday. I am going to review textbooks, workbooks and worksheets.

The most exciting of my holiday plan is that my family and I are going to travel to Thailand. I am looking forward to this 'hot' Christmas trip and I feel really excited. I feel this holiday is going to be joyful and wonderful.
