On Christmas Eve

On Christmas Eve, my family and I sang Christmas carols with all the people from the church.

First, we went to Hong Ning Road to sing and gave presents to some elderlies. We sang and danced for a while. I was going to give an elderly a present. I was very nervous. I told myself not to feel nervous and feel relaxed.

At last, we went to Yue Man Square. We did the same thing like just now. Then we had dinner with my friends. We were almost home. I had a great time.

On Christmas Holiday

My Christmas holiday started on 20 December. It was our Christmas party. It was held on that day.

After the party, we, my brother and my parents went to China to visit my grandparents and cousins, but unfortunately, they didn't have Christmas holiday. So they needed to go to school. It is different from Hong Kong. Compared with them, we are far more lucky than them.

A Fun Trip

Yesterday, I went to Central to celebrate the forty-four anniversary of MTR trains.

Then, I played basketball, a slide and some rides. I had so much fun. I spent five to six hours there. It was worth spending time there.

At last, I went to take some photos of the train stations and MTR maps in the park.

Around six thirty, it was time to go home and I had a great time. Hope to visit there soon.

My favourite hobby

My favourite hobby is dancing. It is because the music is great and teacher is super kind and sweet. I like listening to the music while dancing.

I attend two dancing class every week, jazz class on Wednesdays and ballet class on Saturdays.

Although I like dancing so much, I really don't like stretching in class because it hurts. Do you like dancing? Shall we dance together?

My Birthday

Last Saturday, it was my birthday. I was happy on that day.

First, we went to Momoland Playhouse. We played a lot of things, such as trampoline, grass skiing, ball pit and sandpit.

Then, we went to have lunch. Our lunch was delicious, it is crispy sandwiches with some French fries. After that, we went home and played balloon. I was so scared because we needed to stamp the balloon to make them pop. But it was really fun.

At night, we had hot pot together. We also had a big birthday cake.

I was very excited on that day. Looking forward having my birthday party next year.

An Unforgettable Summer Holiday

This year's summer holiday, my parents took me to Macau to celebrate my birthday.

I was surprised when we arrived at the hotel. I could not believe that I was going to stay in such a luxurious hotel. When I got into the hotel room, my mum and dad said, 'Surprise!' Then, they took out a chocolate strawberry cake to me. I was so joyful.

While we were eating the yummy birthday cake, suddenly, my mum cried, 'Where's my wallet?' Dad, mum and I searched everywhere in the room but could not find it. We immediately went to the restaurant where we had lunch before. We asked the staff there but they told us that they had never seen the wallet.

Next, we went back to the pier. Again, the staff said that they had not seen the wallet.

Disappointedly, we decided to go back to the hotel. When we opened the door, the wallet was just lying on the floor next to the door. Mum turned tears to smile. This was really an 'unforgettable' experience to us.
